MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

INTRODUCTION

Management Discussion and Analysis mainly comprises of the statements which inter alia involve predictions and projections based on perceptions and may, therefore, attract certain risks and uncertainties. Changing economic and business conditions, rapid technological innovation, proliferation of the internet, and globalization are creating an increasingly competitive market environment that is driving corporations to transform the manner in which they operate.

It is the sum total of the Company's expectations, beliefs, estimates and projections which may be forward looking within the meaning of applicable securities, laws and regulations. The actual result could differ materially from those expressed herein specifically or impliedly.

The important factors that could make a difference to the Company's operations include availability and cost of raw material, cyclical demand and pricing in the Company's principal markets, changes in government regulations, tax regimes, economics developments within India and countries in which the Company conducts business, India's Free Trade Agreements with other countries, prevailing exchange rate of INR against other currencies, availability of skilled and unskilled workforce and other incidental factors.

B) OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

The yarn industry is poised to capitalize on several emerging opportunities that can drive growth and innovation. Here are some of the key opportunities on the horizon:

Technological Innovation: Advances in spinning technology and automation can lead to increased efficiency and productivity. The integration of smart textiles and wearable technology with yarn products is also a growing trend.

Expansion into New Markets: Developing countries are experiencing growth in their textile industries, which can be a lucrative market for yarn traders. Establishing a presence in these markets can lead to new business opportunities.

Customization and Personalization: Consumers are increasingly seeking unique and personalized products, prompting manufacturers to offer customizable yarn options.

Sustainability: There is a significant shift towards sustainability and environmentally friendly yarns. The growing global awareness of environmental issues and a heightened sense of responsibility within the textile industry are driving this trend

Smart and Functional Yarns: The focus on introducing smart and functional yarns that can incorporate features such as moisture-wicking, temperature regulation, and conductive properties for applications in wearable technology is fueling the demand.

Challenges faced by the yarn industry:

Price Volatility: Fluctuations in the prices of raw materials, especially cotton, can significantly affect production costs and profit margins. Ensuring consistent quality and strength of yarn is also a challenge amid these price changes.

Competition from Synthetic Fibers: The yarn industry is facing stiff competition from synthetic fibers, which are often cheaper and more uniform in quality. This competition can affect the market share of natural yarns.

Energy and Utility Costs: High utility costs and unreliable gas supply are primary factors that increase production costs for local yarn producers, making locally produced yarn more expensive than imported alternatives.

Environmental Concerns: There is an increasing demand for sustainable and eco-friendly products. The industry must invest in sustainable practices and materials, which can be initially costly and complex to implement.

Global Economic Pressures: The disparity between domestic and international cotton prices, a decline in global demand due to high inflation, and recessionary pressures in developed economies are some of the economic challenges the industry faces.

C) SEGMENT-WISE PERFORMANCE

The Company operates only in one business segment viz. import in yarn and sales the same in the local market and other activities are incidental thereto. Hence, the Company's performance is to be viewed as a single segment company.

D) RISKS AND CONCERNS

Risk is an integral part of business reality it is uncertainty regarding business decisions, events and their possible outcomes that could impact a Company's performance and prospects. Successful risk management implies not only avoidance of risk, but anticipation of same, implementation of relevant mitigation strategies. The textile industry is facing various challenges in the current economic situation. However, our management is committed to contain risks and endeavors towards it.

E) OUTLOOK

The global textile yarn market is projected to reach USD 18.5 billion by 2028 from USD 14.4 billion by 2023, at a CAGR of 5.1% during the forecast period in terms of value. The market has witnessed significant growth and established its dominance in the global textile industry.

One of the foremost contributors to the industry's slowdown was the protracted Russia-Ukraine conflict. This geopolitical tension cast a shadow over the stability of supply chains, affecting the production and distribution of textiles and clothing worldwide. Inflation emerged as another critical factor that played a pivotal role in the industry's downturn. Rising prices had a domino effect, slowing down consumer demand and curbing imports.

However, amid these headwinds, there is a glimmer of hope on the horizon. We anticipate a recovery in the textile and apparel industry in the near future. The recovery hinges on several factors, including the resolution of geopolitical conflicts, containment of inflation, and the restoration of consumer confidence. As these elements fall into place, the industry is expected to rebound, driven by pent-up demand, renewed consumer spending, and resurgence in international trade.

F) ADEQUACY OF INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEM:

The Company has a proper and adequate Internal control system, which provides adequate safeguards and effective monitoring of the transactions and ensures that all resources are put to efficient use and protect against unauthorized use or disposition. INDEPEDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO,
The Members of NANDINI TEXCOM (INDIA) LIMITED

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the standalone financial statements of NANDINI TEXCOM (INDIA) LIMITED which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2024, the Statement of Profit and loss account (including other comprehensive income), Statement of change in Equity, Cash Flow Statement for the year ended, a summary of significant accounting policy and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules 2015, as amended, (Ind AS), the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2024 profit, other comprehensive income, change in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Management's Responsibility for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that operates effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

AS part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- i. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- ii. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls in place with reference to the financial statements and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- iii. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- iv. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion, our conclusion are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the entity to cease to continue as a going concern.
- v. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear risk on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management, override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2024 based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
